

Crooked River Elementary Celebrates Black History Through Art

Students at Crooked River Elementary celebrated Black History Month with their first annual Black History Month poster contest. The posters were not only beautiful and creative but they also shared important and interesting information about some of the great Americans who have made their mark on our nation's rich history. Great job, CRES Dolphins!