

Crooked River Honored as Title I Highest Performing School

Congratulations again to Crooked River Elementary for being honored as a Highest Performing School for five consecutive years. Crooked River teachers and staff recently had a visit from Superintendent Will Hardin and the Central Office Administrators who presented the school with a banner to recognize their awesome achievements.