

Crooked River Students Meet Inspiring Author

Recently, the 3rd, 4th, and 5th graders from Crooked River Elementary enthusiastically welcomed internationally known speaker and author, Trevor Romain! Mr. Romain presented the students with an engaging discussion regarding homework, bullying, and military deployment. He told personal stories about experiences that helped him grow and become the person he is today. Mr. Romain left 5 key elements with students:

1. Speak Up/Talk
2. Ask for Help
3. Write in a journal
4. Exercise
5. Be Kind
