

David L. Rainer Students Celebrate Black History

The wonderful students at David L. Rainer Elementary recently delighted parents and visitors during their annual Black History Month celebration. Students from Kindergarten through 5th grade shared the impressive achievements of African Americans throughout our country's history. The students did an amazing job bringing history to life through their songs, stories and speeches. Great job, DLRES Tigers!