

Camden Masonry Students on the Road to State

After twelve years of attending the North Florida SkillsUSA Masonry Showcase, Camden County High School placed first with an average team score of 824 out of 1000. All team members placed in the top ten at the competition in Stark, Florida. This victory allows the team to continue onto the state competition. Pictured (left to right): Zach Copeland, Jakeb Eason, Ryan Early, Noch Depew, Cameron Cochran, Cameron Keffer, and Dalton Johnson.