

Operational Procedures

The media specialist in each school, in consultation with the media committee, shall provide a procedural manual describing the collection, services, facilities, and procedures governing media center operations. The procedural manual for each school shall be developed using the guidelines outlined in the Camden County Schools Media Handbook.